REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Come now Plaintiff, pursuant to Rules 2-402, 2-412 and 2-422 of the Maryland Rules of Civil Procedure, and request that the Defendant or Defendants each produce the following documents. A written Response to this Request shall be served within the time allotted under the Maryland Rules. The documents called for are requested to be produced at the offices of Brian B. Brown & Brown & Barron, LLC, 7 St. Paul Street, Suite 800, Baltimore, Maryland 21202.

INSTRUCTIONS

- a. These Requests for Production are continuing in character so as to require you to file supplemental answers at any time that you should obtain further or different information.
- b. Unless otherwise indicated, please furnish all information pertaining to the specific address or addresses alleged in the Complaint for this cause of action to be owned and/or operated by you, for a period of three years before and three years after the date of injury alleged in the applicable negligence count, or for the entire period of your ownership, whichever is less.
- c. In answering these Requests for Production, please furnish all information available to you, including information in the possession of your attorneys, or their investigators, and all persons acting on your behalf, including, but not limited to, your employees, agents, officers or representatives, and not merely such information known of your own personal knowledge. If you cannot answer a Request for Production in full after exercising due diligence to secure the information, so state and answer to the extent possible, specifying your inability to answer the remainder and stating whatever information or knowledge you have concerning the unanswered portions.

d. For purposes of interpreting or construing the scope of the Requests for Production herein, the terms used shall be given the most expansive and inclusive interpretation, unless otherwise specifically limited in the Request itself. This includes, without limitation, the following:

1. Construing “and” as well as “or” in the disjunctive or conjunctive, and as necessary to make the Request more inclusive;
2. construing the terms “relating to,” “related to” and “regarding” to include any connection whatsoever, direct or indirect, with the requested information without limitation, unless otherwise specified in the Request;
3. construing “any” as well as “all” individually as well as collectively, not to the exclusion of the other;
4. construing singular and masculine forms of any nouns or pronouns to embrace and be applied as the plural, feminine, or neuter, as context requires, or vice versa; and
5. construing the past tense of any verb to embrace and be applied to the present tense, as the context requires, or as applicable, and the vice versa.

e. In the event you claim that a Request for Production is objectionable or inquires into privileged matters, state the nature of the objection or the privilege asserted and the reasons therefore and all facts supporting assertion of the objection or privilege with sufficient specificity to enable counsel, and the court if needed, to evaluate the propriety of the asserted privilege or objection. You are further requested to produce those portions of any document, which are not subject to a claim of privilege, by excising or otherwise protecting the portions over which the privilege is asserted. For any document which you assert is covered by privilege in its entirety, please provide a list identifying:

1. the type and general subject matter of the document;
2. its author, date, and recipient; and
3. restating the privilege asserted.

DEFINITIONS

a. The terms “document” and “documents” refer to all writings of any kind, including, without limitation, the originals and all non-identical copies, whether different from the originals by reason of any notation made on such copies or otherwise including, without limitation, correspondence, memoranda, notes, diaries, statistics, letters, telegrams, minutes, contracts, reports, studies, checks, statements, receipts, returns, summaries, pamphlets, books, interoffice and intra-office communications, notations of any conversations (including, without limitation, telephone calls, meetings, and other communications), bulletins, printed matter, computer printouts, invoices, worksheets, graphic or oral records or representations of any kind (including, without limitation, photographs, maps, models, drawings, diagrams, charts, graphs, microfiche, microfilm, videotapes, recordings and motion pictures), electronic, mechanical or electric records or representations of any kind (including, without limitation, electronic mail, tapes, cassettes, discs, recordings and computer files and memories), and all drafts, alterations, modifications, changes and amendments of any of the foregoing. As used herein, the term “document” includes all Electronically Stored Information (“ESI”) and any other data or data compilations stored in any medium from which information can be obtained.

b. The term “you” or “yours” means each Defendant to whom the Requests are addressed, and any of such Defendant’s related entities, predecessors, successors or subsidiaries, past or present, and any and all representative or persons of any kind acting on behalf of such Defendant or Defendants, including, its employees, agents, representatives or contractors, and any of their employees, agents, representatives or contractors, or related entities, predecessors, successors or subsidiaries, past or present.

c. The term “Subject Property(ies)” refers to the address(es) allegedly owned and/or operated by you, as set forth in the Complaint for this cause of action.

d. The term “Occurrence” refers to the alleged exposure to deteriorated lead-based paint at the Subject Property and the alleged resultant injury to Plaintiff(s), as set forth in the Complaint for this cause of action.
